Program

Tonight, for the 2nd week in a row, we met at the Fairgrounds inside Exhibition Bldg 1, since alterations at the All Steak were not yet completed. (Our next meeting on April 15th will be at the All Steak). We had another great meal, catered by Freddy Day. The program dealt with Auburn basketball trivia and was brought to us by Lion Steve Singleton.

Lion Steve began by asking for three Auburn fans to volunteer to come forward and participate in his quiz in return for winner-take-all prizes. Lions Barry Willingham, Austin Monk, and Charlie McBrayer confidently volunteered to meet this challenge. Lion Steve's 10 questions were not easy, although if you wrote, "Charles Barkley" as the answer for every question, you would have won or tied the eventual winner of this contest. One of the questions was, "Who was Auburn's head-basketball coach in the 1940's that also became its head-football coach, later?" The correct answer, surprising many, was, "Coach Shug Jordan." We had a lot of laughs during the program as this "astute" panel struggled with the quiz. A letter grade for all members of the panel would have been F-. The winner was Lion Austin Monk who was presented with an Auburn baseball cap (which actually turned out to be a Japanese baseball team cap), an Auburn shirt, and an office-sized basketball & goal set. Several Lion's remarked that the prizes were too "nice" for this group's feeble performance.

Other Business

Lion Barry Willingham is looking for a few more adults to help him chaperon a group of young people in a bus trip to Lee County for a day of help to that tornado devastated area. His group will be assisting with the cleanup efforts at people's homes and at the long-term donation warehouse in Opelika. The bus leaves at 5:30am on Thursday the 18th and gets back late that same day. You can call Lion Barry at 256-507-4601 for more details.

The Fair Board will be having a meeting next Monday, April 15th at the Fairgrounds.

Lion Jerry Bonner has raffle tickets for sale benefiting LCIF at a cost of $5 ea. or five for $20. Prize winner will get $500.
