

The Tale Twister

Cullman Lions Club

Aug 10, 2020

Program

We had a very short program tonight. Lion Chris Robinson filled us in on a breaking new story. It dealt with the shooting of an armed man unsuccessfully attempting to enter the White House grounds.

Other Business

Lion Jim Rooker is holding on but is making little progress in his battle with cancer.

Lion Ed Henke was laid to rest this past Thursday. A formal remembrance ceremony was held for Lion Jerry Caudle on this past Sunday at which Lion David Bussman gave a heart-felt tribute. Lion Scott Waldrep reported that his Mom, Lioness Judi Waldrep was undergoing a multiple bypass heart operation this evening.

Keep the above Lion families in your prayers.

If you were not at tonight's meeting you missed out on grilled steak, fried shrimp, and pork tenderloin, along with mashed potatoes, baked potato chunks, green beans, fried squash, butter-beans, angel food cake with strawberries & whipped crème, and pecan pie. We were also given an opportunity to take an extra plate home. With frequent such a layouts of food, we may be getting a little spoiled, and probably putting on an extra pound or two.

Upcoming Programs and Events

Aug 17: If the weather is not oppressive, Lion Don Smith will have an interesting, but short program for us.

Oct 8-17: Cullman County Fair.
