

The Tale Twister

Cullman Lions Club

January 30, 2023

Program

We did not have a program speaker tonight. We did have another good crowd, and club members present enjoyed a delightful breakfast buffet meal from Freddie Day Catering, prepared and served by Mr. Freddie Day, Ms. Sherry Norris, and Sherry's daughter, Crystal.

Lion Gordon Boyd prepares to dig-in.

New Lion Don Scott, sponsored by Lion Ron Seybold, introduced himself to the Club. He is retired from IBM and next door-neighbor of Lion Wendel Copeland. He also a member a men's mission group that builds handicap ramps and generally helps indigenous people with home repairs. See photo, below.

Other Business

Lion Javon Daniel and Lion Mary Daniel are recovering satisfactorily from Covid, but still has fatigue. Lion Charlie McBrayer is feeling okay, but has general weakness. Lion Jerry Smith has the flu.

Lion Carey Thompson discussed using LEOS and the Branch Club to help sell tickets. Details of this will be discussed by the Club's BOD at its next meeting.

Lion Bill Ruehl announced the district plan to refund $10 per new member for the month of February back to the Club.

Lion Don Smith has Fish and Ham tickets. He, along with Chris Brooks, and Craig Gadow, were busy letting Lions sign for theirs. He says that he will accept check payments ahead of the sale of your tickets received, if desired. Price of a ticket remains at $15. See photo, below.

The Tale Twister

Cullman Lions Club

Lion Frank Odell talked about the New Member Roundtable which was to start tonight. Lion Don Smith was going to present information on our Club's constitution and ground rules of operation.

Lion Secretary Craig Gadow announced District 34-A convention in Ft. Payne of March 10th – 11th. The Club will pay for the registration of our members.

Lion President Milford Parrish reported on a 34-A District meeting held last weekend in Moulton, Al. He said that it was a roundtable discussion in which there was good discussions among the Club Presidents and Secretaries present. Discussion items and conclusions will be compiled and published at a later date.
