Cullman Lions Club

June 13, 2022

Program

Cullman County Fair Queen Abby Sosa spoke to us tonight, thanking the Lions for their support as she is competing for Miss Alabama. Accompanying Abby were her family and several friends including Autumn Cook, Cullman County Fair 2021 Petite Fair Princess. Abby noted that the whole Cullman community has rallied behind her in this contest; she has spoken to and received support from the Gardendale and Cullman Rotary Clubs. A specific thank you was given to Lion Charlie Childers as Fair Board President who has actively assisted her and attended the Miss Alabama Centennial dinner with her.

Good crowd, tonight.

Miss Sosa points out her guests as Lions Javon Daniel, Charlie Childers, and Chris Robinson look on.

“Send Me Refuge,” her designated charity, has received over $600,000 in donations in the past year. The Miss Alabama pageant will be hosting a golf tournament in Birmingham on Monday, June 27th. This is the same day the Miss Alabama contest begins in earnest with the crowning on the new Miss Alabama on July 2nd.

Great food, as usual.

Other Business

President Lion Javon Daniel changed the dress code for Lions Club installation dinner: Wear a dress shirt and tie with your Lions vest. This event will be in two weeks on the 27th at the Browne Stone Center at Stone Bridge Farms. The venue will open at 5:30pm with dinner 6:00pm.

Cullman Lions Club

Lions Richard Gurley and Carey Thompson have contracted Covid, a second time for both. Their symptoms have been mild, and a speedy recovery is expected.

Lion Ricky Peek broke a foot in a motorcycle accident, then hyper-extended an arm in another accident.

There will be both Lions Club and Fair Board of Directors meetings, following this coming Monday's regular Club meeting.

June 27 : Club officer installation at the Browne Stone Center at Stone Bridge Farms. This event will open at 5:30pm with dinner 6:00pm. President Lion Javon Daniel changed the dress code for Lions: Wear a dress shirt and tie with your Lions Vest.

Upcoming Programs and Events

June 20: Lion Charlie Childers will be our speaker. Although it will be hard for him not to talk about the Cullman County Fair, his subject will be Walmart, where he works as a supervisor in its huge regional warehouse. This promises to be an interesting program.

Lion Charles Childers – our speaker this Monday.
